MEDICINAL.

THE MAN IN ARMOR

Was no match for the microbe. Giants he might slay but this microscopic organism defied him, and in many a campaign more men were destroyed by camp diseases than by the enemy's sword.

The one way to arm against microbe disease is to keep the blood pure. Impure blood both feeds and feeds disease.

The signs of impure blood are easy to read. Pimples, boils, and eruptions generally proclaim the blood to be impure. Scrofulous sores and swellings, salt-rhums, eczema, etc., are other signs of a corrupt condition of the blood.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood and cures diseases caused by the blood's impurity. It cures scrofulous sores, boils, pimples, eczema and other defiling and disfiguring diseases.

"It gives me great pleasure to express my faith in the virtue of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. Ezekiel F. F. of Graytown, Ottawa Co., Ohio. "I suffered everything for two years with humor on my face which baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. Was at once advised to go to the hospital. I was treated there for three months without success. Came home discouraged. Then began to doctor with a 'chemist.' He also failed to help me. Then I began Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, with no faith whatever in it. Did it only to please my wife, but I am happy to tell you that after taking five bottles I am entirely cured."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send at one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or at stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHEN THIEVES FALL OUT &C.

"If District Attorney Jerome will let me tell the plain story of the blackmail which has existed during the past eight years, the revelations will astonish New York." So spoke Lawrence Murphy, the convicted treasurer of the Stonecutters' Union, who is in Sing Sing prison to serve a sentence of five years and six months for having taken $10,000 belonging to the union. Murphy went to work this morning making mats, which is one of the hardest occupations in the prison. Murphy says he doesn't care, for the hard work will make him forget his bitterness toward those who did not "stand by him."

"Mr. Jerome does not know," said Murphy, "nor does the public know, of the enormous amount of graft obtained yearly by walking delegates from employers in the building trades in New York and Brooklyn. As was stated by Assistant District Attorney Raul in a speech the other day, this graft is even more enormous than the police graft. For the eight years while I was an officer of the Stonecutters' Union I can state that the amount of money extorted from employers by the various delegates was more than $1,000,000. None of this money was really 'waiting' money. It never went into the union to help the members individually, but went into the pockets of so-called leaders. If permitted, I will expose the whole method. Many of the strikes ordered were without any real grievances, but were instigated on the mere whim of the delegates. Often a strike is called one day, and the next day a committee of employees goes to the employers to talk over the situation. They go there merely for graft, and they get it. If employers do not enter into negotiations their work is held up. This means a serious loss. The employers are under contract to have a building completed at a certain time and have to pay a forfeit for every day over time. These are the buildings generally selected for strikes. I hear a lot of talk that the employers are as guilty as the walking delegate. The employers do not want to give up their money, but are compelled to pay or give up their business. I have facts and figures against more than a dozen walking delegates. Employers' books and bank accounts will show the money they paid. The graft was easy and the blackmailing of employers was continuous. I am not surprised that the employers have organized. They could not stand it any longer and do business."

PRESIDENT INSULTED.—Profane and abusive language was directed toward President Roosevelt and his family yesterday as they were driving up to Christ Church at Oyster Bay to attend the morning service. The offender was a resident of Oyster Bay named McCann. He was hustled away from church unceremoniously by the Secret Service operatives. Accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and two of her children, the President had driven to the village from Sagamore Hill to attend church service, as is their custom on Sunday morning. Directly in front of Christ Church the man McCann was walking along the roadside pushing a bicycle. As the President's carriage was about to turn into the driveway leading into the church grounds it passed McCann. Without provocation, the man with an offensive oath, demanded to know whether they wanted the whole road. This was followed by abusive and profane language. As the carriage stopped at the church door, the President, greatly annoyed at the insult offered to Mrs. Roosevelt and the children, alighted and directed the attention of the Secret Service officers to the man and ordered that he be compelled to leave the vicinity of the church. McCann hesitated when ordered to move on, but as an officer was about to stimulate his movements he sprang on his wheel and rode away rapidly. While the incident was annoying to the President and his family, it is his desire that no action be taken against the man.

WHIPPED BY A WOMAN.—A dispatch from Buchanan, Ga., says: Begging piteously for mercy, Alexander Murray, son of the wealthiest man of this section, was frightfully cowed yesterday just as he was preparing to enter church by Mrs. Josie Harrison, the postmistress at Buchanan, who was aided by her sister. Mrs. Harrison has a beautiful young daughter, to whom Murray has been paying attention. A few days ago rumors reflecting on the girl became current. The mother traced these stories to Murray. Yesterday morning, armed with a cowhide and accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Harrison stationed her at the church door. In a few minutes Murray appeared. The young man was covered by a revolver in the hands of the sister and the mother began to ply the cowhide. Murray screamed and people ran from the church, but the mother continued to use the cowhide until the young man's clothes were cut from him and his flesh was raw and bleeding. Several strokes landed on his face, one of his eyes being closed. Finally Mrs. Harrison was induced to desist and then she drew a document from her pocket in which it was stated that the rumors against the girl were lies and were uttered by a base slanderer. This she forced Murray to sign. The young man is seriously injured, but public sentiment sustains the mother.
